

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

5/ 1926
11
DAHLIAS

FOREIGN PLANT QUARANTINES

JUN 18 1926

LIBRARY RECEIVED

★ JUL 6 1931 ★

U. S. Department of Agriculture.

For
Beauty and Quality

Robert Treat, Mueller. New American Beauty Rose in color, recognized as the most outstanding novelty and best decorative type yet seen, with its long straight stem, perfect formation of petals and great depth; free blooming, yet from 7-10 inches in diameter, makes it a sure prize-winner wherever shown, being awarded the Robert Treat Hotel Silver Cup, Newark, N. J., 1923. The Garden Magazine Sweepstake at the great New York Show, 1924, also the Silver Medal Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, Philadelphia, and first prize again at the Museum of Natural History, 1925, besides many other prizes. Robert Treat will be as great a favorite among Dahlias as the American Beauty has been among Roses. When car lots of Dahlias are going on the dump heap in New York wholesale market Robert Treat is selling for $3.00 per dozen. Tuber grown roots by the originator, $5.00 each, $2.50 per plant.

Jersey Beauty, Dec. (Waite) True pink; a world reputation in all details. Great cut flower and excellent keeper. $3.50 per tuber.

Charles Stratton, Dec. A grand exhibition variety. A fluffy Dahlia that has been awarded over twenty prizes in the State of New Jersey alone, for size of flower, and artistic coloring. The color is pale gold, shaded and tipped with old rose. Stiff upright stems, one of the best. Plants only $2.50 each.

Jersey Gem, Dec. (Waite) A real giant. Lavender pink in color, stem straight and long; very free bloomer. Certificate A. D. S. 1923. Plants only $2.50.

Jersey Jewel, Dec. (Waite) Mallow pink; very large, long petaled flowers, on good stems. A splendid exhibition variety. Flowers grow 9 inches in diameter. Certificate A. D. S. 1923. Plants only $2.00.

Jersey Queen, Dec. (Waite) Coral pink. Flowers are of medium size, but splendid form and free bloomer. A real Queen all summer long. Plants $2.50.

Violetta H., Dec., (Waite) Petunia violet, favorite by all for its rich outstanding color. Tubers $3.50.

Tryphinie, Dec., (Seal) Bright shell pink with deeper rose. Very large flower on stiff stem. Admired by everybody. Tubers $2.00, Clumps $5.00.

Emma Marie H., Dec. Pink with creamy center; of great beauty and free bloomer. Plants $3.50.

Trentonian, Dec. (F & M.) A giant decorative Dahlia. Awarded best prizes all over the country; a wonderful blending of old gold, amber and coppery bronze. The petals are broad with the appearance of velvet. A real self and outstanding color. Plants $4.00.

Siskiyou H., Dec. (Broomall) Tourmaline pink, tinged mauve. Capucine orange at base of broad and longest petals. A real wonder among Dahlias for size as well as color. Can be grown a full foot in diameter. Plants only $4.00.

Francis Lobdell H., Dec. (Waite) This variety has become a great favorite among all growers. Color is most pleasing mallow pink, shading to white in center. Certificated A. D. S., 1922. Large flower on good stem. Tubers $2.50.

Ambassador, Cact, (Broomall) This is the best and largest Cactus Dahlia ever introduced. Size 8-10 inches in diameter. Color yellow buff, shading to salmon pink; fine long and straight stem. Tubers $3.50.

Copper King, Dec. (Marean) An immense flower of a copper shade, held perfectly erect on a strong stem. Plants $4.00.

Sagamore, Dec. (Badetty Bros.) An exceptionally fine exhibition or cut flower of a golden color, with salmon-rose center; flowers are large, on long and stiff stem; a real outstanding flower of rare beauty. To see it once means never to forget it. Plants $5.00.

Paul Michael, Dec. A pure gold colored, perfect and immense size; free bloomer. Won certificate of highest award in Dahlia Society of California Trial Garden 1921. Clumps $3.00, Tuber $1.00.

Insulink H., Dec. This is a wonderful flower all around, standing upright like a Chrysanthemum. Color amber and gold and autumn tinted. Clumps $2.00.

Charm, D. P. (Marean). Color most pleasing combination of burnt amber shading to yellow. Blooms freely on strong stem. Clumps $2.00.

Mrs. Ide Ver Warner, Dec. (Marean). Color deep mauve pink; excellent stem; considered the best of Marean's varieties. Clumps $2.50.

Mrs. Carl Salbach, Dec. (Salbach) A California variety of great merit. Color a lavender pink, perfect all around. Clumps $2.00, Tuber 65c.

Attraction (Cact.) Flowers of large size, clear rosy lilac; strong stems; free bloomer, one of the best cut flowers. Clumps $1.50, Tuber 50c.

F. W. Fellows, (Cact.) This flower is always highly pleasing. Color deep orange, large, finest stem and type as a Cactus unsurpassible; great for cutting and show flower as well. Clumps $2.50, Tuber 75c.

Pierrot, (Cact.) Lovely deep amber, usually boldly tipped with white, very large and fine exhibition flower. Clumps $1.50, Tuber 50c.

Edith Cavell, (Cact.) This flower is of great beauty, even variegated creamy pink with scarlet tips; finest stem, medium size. Clumps $2.50, Tuber 75c.

Ballet Girl, (Cact.) A great favorite. Color orange with white edge. Clumps $3.50, Tuber $1.00.

Earl William, Dec. Crimson petals white tipped, excellent stem. Very good and attractive flower. Clumps $3.00, Tuber $1.00.

Rumson, Dec. A real novelty; an outstanding self color between light gold and choice lightest pink; fine stem. Clumps $2.50, Tuber 75c.

Azalea H., Dec. A very fine and good size flower. Creamy yellow, variegated with deep apricot; good stem and splendid bloomer. Clumps $2.00.

King of Commerce, Dec. This is without doubt, the freeist blooming Dahlia in existence. Flower of medium size and between copper and bronze in color. From 35-50 nice blooms to each plant, carried on the finest and cleanest stem. Tubers $1.50

Sunrise Single, (Mueller) This is a new, large single Dahlia of my own. It won the first prize in the single class, 1925, at the Museum of History New York. Color yellow overlaid with apricot. I never yet have been able to satisfy the demand in cut flowers of this variety. Tubers $1.50, Clumps $5.00.

Cammille Frochaw (Single) Imported French Dahlias, large flower, free bloomer, a real sensation for color and beauty; color purple, lavender tips with large gold center; very attractive. Tuber $1.00, Clumps $3.00.

Amber Queen (Pompom) Clumps $1.50.

San Toy (Pompom) Color white heavy overlaid with deep rose tips; very choice. Clump $1.50.

Discount 25% to the trade.

GLADIOLAS

Francis King, Schwaben, Sunbeam, Pendelton, L. M. Foch, Rouge Torch, 1910 Rose, Miss Helen Franklyn, Alice Tiadiy, Dorothy Wheeler, Altair, Gretchen Zang, Evelyn Kirtland, Fire King. (Prices on application.)

George Mueller

Dahlia Specialist

MANASQUAN, N. J.

Telephone 207-W

